Dear Dr. McDaniel,

I just wanted to drop you a quick thank you for your prayers and your kind phone call to me. My son Jay fought so hard to stay alive, but the infections from his burns took him to God. I know you have felt similar pain with the passing of your brother fifteen years ago from the burns he suffered. I am still dealing with Jay's loss...time will heal.

I asked you to pray for Jay that night in the dim light of the classroom; I can't thank you enough for the peace that brought to me. As we journey through life we really have no idea what tomorrow might bring to us. I take relief in knowing that Jay is in a wonderful place, as he knew the peace of Jesus.

I am enclosing a picture of Jay. For some reason, I don't know why, I just felt it important for you to see his face...and feel the love in his heart.

As I continue in my journey to learn more of the nature of God at Eastern, and attempt to answer questions I have had for years...I will take with me Jay's loving spirit.

Thank you again, Dr. McDaniel, your call meant so much. I have been alone in my house for quite some time, and your words brought to me the power of the Body of Christ. That even if we are alone...we never are.

Thanks,

Jim Sarvis
