

Dr. McDaniel,

This note is to let you know how much I appreciated your course. You have sparked in me new insights about the Bible which will be invaluable in my Christian experience. I have learned to begin to think critically about the scriptures in such a way that is exciting and adventurous. — Thank You!

If ever a teacher did become an instructor and a friend you have exhibited both to me. In my hour of need for support and comfort over the death of my Grandfather you took the time to let me know that your thoughts and prayers were with me. That has meant a lot because it came at the right time I was at my lowest moment — of which I have still to recovery. Again I can only say — Thanks,

Your Brother in Christ,

Kelvin James
