Dear Dr. McDaniel,

In the most recent issue of "inministry" I read with interest the synopsis of your commencement address, "A New Paradigm for a New Century," to the graduating class of 1998. I would be very much in your debt if I could have a copy of the complete address. I am enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope. Thank you.

I hope that your health continues to improve and that we shall all continue to be blessed with your prophetic and compassionate ministry. I am continuing to so do volunteer pastoral work along with occasional preaching at Old First Reformed Church in Philadelphia where, from time to time, I see your colleague, Robert Wright, of Temple.

Wishing you a restorative and restful summer, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Carl M. Kleis
